

The INTERTRIBAL NURSERY COUNCIL presents
2018 ANNUAL MEETING
24-26 July 2018
Boise, ID

AGENDA

2018 Intertribal Nursery Council Agenda

Tuesday, July 24

7:45-8:30 Registration

8:30 Welcome - Jeremiah Pinto, USDA Forest Service, Moscow, ID

Welcome and Blessing; Ted Howard, Tribal Chairman, Shoshone-Paiute Tribes, Owyhee, NV

9:15 Salmon reintroduction on the Duck Valley Reservation – Jinwon Seo, Shoshone-Paiute Tribes, Owyhee, NV

9:40 Monitoring and maintaining fisheries and wildlife habitat on the Duck Valley Reservation – Chris Cleveland and Jamie Smith, Shoshone-Paiute Tribes, Owyhee, NV

10:00 Break

10:20 Hoop houses, grants, and food sovereignty for the Shoshone-Paiute - Reggie Premo, Rhiannon Nino (presenting), University of Nevada Cooperative Extension, Owyhee, NV

10:45 Plants for people: bringing traditional ecological knowledge to restoration - Jeremy Ojua, Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde, Grand Ronde, OR

11:10 Community and agency native plant needs on the Navajo nation - Jesse Mike, Navajo Natural Heritage Program, Flagstaff, AZ

11:35 Recruitment of seed-associated microbes in ethnobotanical plant species as a result of soil degradation - Desirae Kissell, University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ

11:50 Monitoring vegetation recovery following the 2015 Soda wildfire and rehabilitation treatments - Kyle Calf Looking (presenting), Matt Fisk, Cara Applestein, and Matt Germino, US Geological Survey, Boise, ID

12:10 Lunch (included with registration)

1:30 Depart for Table Rock

2:00 Table Rock Restoration Project - Martha Brabec, City of Boise, Boise, ID

2:45 Depart for Lucky Peak

3:30 US Forest Service Lucky Peak Nursery - Sara Wilson, USDA Forest Service, Boise, ID

5:00 Depart for Hotel

The INTERTRIBAL NURSERY COUNCIL presents
2018 ANNUAL MEETING
24-26 July 2018
Boise, ID

AGENDA

Wednesday, July 25

- 8:00 The western monarch: how efforts to save this endangered butterfly are helping all types of pollinators - Thomas D Landis, Native Plant Nursery Consulting, Medford, OR
- 8:30 Considering native bees in nursery, restoration, and traditional ecological management practices - Brian Dykstra, Native Bee Society, Willow Creek, CA
- 9:00 Pollinator restoration programs, plant identification, and traditional ecological knowledge - Andrew Gourd, Eastern Shawnee Tribe of Oklahoma, Wyandotte, OK
- 9:30 Forest Service National Botany Program - William Carromero, USDA Forest Service, Washington, DC
- 9:45 Compiling ethnobotany of southwest California - William Pink, Agua Caliente Tribe of Cupeño Indians, Temecula, CA
- 10:15 Break
- 10:45 An update on propagation and mitigation efforts: greenhouse irrigation control and determining which species can be planted in cheatgrass - Steven Link (presenting), Gail Redberg, and Janice Jones, Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation, Pendleton, OR
- 11:15 Alternatives to traditional pesticides and fertilizers in native plant nurseries - Joel Fields - Wilbur Ellis, Spokane, WA

Tour Itinerary

- 12:00 Depart for field tours (lunch on bus)
- 1:30 Arrive at Bruneau Dunes State Park
- 2:30 Depart for Owyhee
- 4:00 Arrive at Greenhouses
- 5:00 Traditional Dinner
- 6:30 Depart for hotel
- 9:00 Arrive at hotel

The INTERTRIBAL NURSERY COUNCIL presents
2018 ANNUAL MEETING
24-26 July 2018
Boise, ID

AGENDA

Thursday, July 26

8:30 Climate change & the Seed Selection Tool - Holly Prendeville, USDA NW Climate Hub, Corvallis, OR

9:00 Drought and Community Collaborative Rain, Hail, & Snow network (CoCoRaHS) - Holly Prendeville

9:30 Adaptive genetics and climate - Bryce Richardson, USDA Forest Service, Moscow, ID

10:00 Break

10:30 Restoration successional trajectories, seed zones, and seed production - Francis Kilkenny, USDA Forest Service, Boise, ID

11:15 Nursery practices to mitigate drought - Jeremiah Pinto, USDA Forest Service, Moscow, ID

11:40 Candidate Conservation Agreements with Assurances demo project - Jeff Everett, US Fish and Wildlife Service, Portland, OR

12:00 Adjourn